Bolermakers' Convention.—Meeting of the local boiler manufacturers, held yesterday afternoon at the Little Club for the purpose of completing arrangements for the convention to be held in May. Since the last meeting, i.e., several hundred dollars have been spent for the purpose of entertaining visitors. The only question now is how to make as large an appearance as possible. It was decided, on the part of Phil Rohan, to invite supply houses and Mr. Rohan stated he would write personal letters to all the managers who attended the last convention in Pittsburgh inviting them to this one. Committees were then appointed to take care of the expense and manner of holding the convention in May. The meeting adjourned again at the pleasure of the sec-

ITALY'S LAST CARD

BLAINE MUST RESPOND TO RUDINI'S NOTE
BY APRIL 15.

Failing in This Minister Porter Shall Quit Rome.

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS REFUSE TO BE INTERVIEWED.

The Premier's Hasty Action Thought
to Be Due to Crisp's Taunts That Italy Dare Not Demand Redress—The Feeling in Rome—Bitterness Toward the United States—The King's Annoyance—
Latest Phase of the Trouble.

SEVERAL newspapers of this city to-day say that they are able to confirm the report circulated yesterday that the United States Government does not answer
the Marquis Di Rudini's last note by a certain date. The United States, however, has not yet sent its note to leave Italy, and the Italian Legation in Washington will be recalled, Italian interests being left in charge of the British Minister.

However, yesterday's report has it that the Italian Government had only given the United States Government until to-day in which to answer the Marquis Di Rudini's note. It is now asserted by the newspapers that the Italian Government has given the United States Government until Tuesday, April 15, in which to reply.

In this to-day everybody is on the qui vive for the next act in the Italian-American drama. Crisp has openly stated that the Budini Cabinet dare not make a serious demand for redress upon the United States, and that the Italian people have been held up to ridicule by the vaticans of the Ministry.

The statement that American utterances had had an influence in provoking hostile feelings and induced him that the United States Government could not demand redress from this view of the case, and for this reason the Italian Government had recalled its Minister at Washington and reappointed Baron Fava, who had intended departing so soon as possible, leaving Marquis Imperial the Italian Secretary of Legation in charge of the business of his Government at Washington.

Under date of April 1 Secretary Blaine wrote to Marquis Imperial expressing regret at Baron Fava's recall. Mr. Blaine said that under the Constitution of the United States the States were given the right to conduct trials for crimes committed within their respective borders and therefore the Federal Government having no jurisdiction over them. The court could not give the guarantee demanded by Italy. Even if it had such jurisdiction the Federal Government could not anticipate that the gates of the American paradise are about to be shut on Italians, and there is a rush to get in before they close.
The ports are thronged with Italian emigrants, and families from patriarchal to the hives can be seen trudging along the roads that lead to the points of departure. The authorities are making every effort to accommodate but with little effect. Nothing short of bayonets can stay the torrent. Most of the emigrants are said to be hard-working and worthy peasants but very ignorant and dirty. The increase of taxes has also tended to promote emigration.

Contrary to the general impression, the Italian army is in a much more efficient condition than the navy, and discipline is very strict, and the troops are as far as drill is concerned. The mixture of the troops has, however, a tendency to lower the standard, the Italians of the south being, as a rule, very inferior to those of the north, who have so far won most of Italy's successes.

THE BARON RAIDS.

New York, April 11.—Baron Fava, the Italian Minister at Washington, sailed for Milan yesterday morning. French La Gascogne.

A number of prominent Italian citizens and some of the attachés of the Italian Consul's office were at the pier to see him off. He will go direct to Rome. The Baron is not now in command of the list of saloon passengers. A reporter saw the purser of L. G. Gascogne this morning and his only answer was:
"Fava has seen no one. He is not at all well and deserves to be not disturbed." The Baron did not show himself on deck
while La Gascogne drew away from the pier.

WHAT THE LONDON PAPERS SAY IT—CURE
RENT BRITISH TOPICS.

LONDON, April 11.—The Times and Standard have been compelled to withdraw the composition of the Royal Labor Commission.

The Telegraph is the only paper that actually protests the commission.

The New York Times says the Government must be credited with an endeavor to represent all views, but practical men prefer a small body
as more likely to arrive at a useful conclusion.

THE CHRONICLE (Labor organ) agrees that Lord Hartington will make a good chairman. It says he is firm, courteous and impartial, but political. The capitalist element is too strong to inspire the confidence of the working class.
A name at the names shown the members will never agree to any legislative proposal. The evidence collected by the commission will transcend the importance of the report.

NOTHING CAN BE LEARNED AT THE STATE DE-PARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—It was impossible to secure any information to-day tending to confirm the report from Rome that the Italian Government was about to give Minister Porter his passports and sever diplomatic relations unless it received to-day an answer from the Italian Minister to Premier Rudini's note. Secretary Blaine was not at the State Department. Of the assistant secretaries one was confined to his bed, ill, and the other, in protest against the treatment of the Italian Ambassador, to the point of ignorance upon the subject, so that he took charge of both states, that of Geo. Knapp & Co., not having been administered upon. Plaintiff claims that by virtue of his position he is entitled to all dividends, and that the company will not be bound to pay him less than the amount due him, and due on 500 shares of its capital stock, and that $5,400 is due him on account of dividends declared since Jan. 1, 1889, which sum defendant refuses to pay on any account. The plaintiff therefore prays judgment for that sum with interest and costs of suit.

It will be observed that plaintiff fails to make any demands for dividends prior to Jan. 1, 1889, the date of the first letter sent to the estate of George Knapp & Co., entitled to the dividends declared since Jan. 1, 1889, it would seem that he is also entitled to all the dividends since the date of the death of Knapp, in September, 1888, or, perhaps, the company declared no dividends between September, '88 and January, '89, and that reason no claim for dividends prior to Jan.
1, 1889, can be sustained. The plaintiff will be heard by Judge Fisher in Court-room No. 2.

"Mr. G. W. Knapp is the plaintiff in the case, but the real defendant," said one of the attorneys for the case, "is not Mr. Charles W. Knapp, but the stockholders who are not interested in the estate of Geo. Knapp & Co.," and principal among those stockholders is the Prince of Wales. The plaintiff's memorial was made to the court that the suit would cause a big split in the Third street concern, and that it was not as amicable one of the attorneys reported it to be.

Pendleton, who was on top of the boiler at the time of the accident, was also injured,
but not seriously.

Little Progress Made in the Canvass of Tuesday's Ballots.

A JUDGE'S EXPERIENCE AT ONE OF THE POLLING BOOTHS.

Wholesale Voting on Dead Men's Names—An Election Official Behind the Bars—Battling Hard for Cragier—Proceedings of the State Legislatures—After Trusts and Railways.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 11.—The Board of Election Commissioners met to-day for the purpose of taking up the canvass of votes cast at the city election on Tuesday. The board first proceeded to hear evidence in the matter of the alleged misconduct of Dennis Sheehan, one of the judges of election in the Nineteenth Precinct of the Twentieth Ward. Sheehan is the man who was given a writ of habeas corpus yesterday, on complaint of the Chairman of the Republican Campaign Committee.

S. P. Harris, one of the Republican Judges, testified that after the polls were closed an alteration arose as to who should count the tickets to see whether they tallied in number with the number of votes cast as shown by the register. Sheehan demanded the key to the ballot-box, and it being refused, he, in his opinion, caused the box to be broken at the same time the crowd outside broke in the window. Harris said he was informed that there was a conspiracy to destroy the ballots and the poll-books. In the confusion the ballot-box disappeared, and was afterwards found in an inner room. Harris then demanded that Sheehan be arrested, and it was done.

SHEEHAN'S STORY.

Sheehan testified that the whole trouble arose from the fact that he was forced to run things to suit himself, and did not propose to allow the Democratic Judges to have any voice in the matter. He admitted that he had been present at the meeting, but said that it was with no intention of fraud. Mr. Durbin's amendment to the Senate penitentiary bill, requiring the establishment of factories in the penitentiary for the manufacture of articles of good and bad quality, was adopted. This will probably be the longest session ever held by the Texas Legislature, owing to the disagreement of the two houses as to the date of final adjournment.

AN UNPRECEDENTED DEMAND.

Crop Failures in France Favorably Affect the St. Louis Wheat Market.

The present outlook for the wheat crop better than it has been for years, and it does not appear that the small amount of rain which has fallen recently will be quite sufficient to meet the needs of the crop. The wheat crop was passed including one making the Scribner standard for scaling logs. Fifteen Senate bills were concurred in.

THE INVESTIGATION.

The investigation was then put over until after the completion of the canvass. In the meantime Sheehan was taken over to Judge Tuthill's court an attorney for the Association of Attorneys locked up in jail.

When the board turned its attention to canvassing the votes, Judge Prendergast, who represents the Cragier wing of the Democratic party, appeared before it and demanded that the investigation be stopped.

The investigation of the legal action of City Attorney Sugg, a member of the board, to sit as such, on the ground that he was a candidate at the late election and was hostile to Mr. Cragier.

NOTING ON DEAD MEN'S NAMES.

The following is a sample of what Republicans papers of this city are saying in regard to the late election. The Playboy, a Democratic paper, in the Fifteenth Precinct of the Twenty-ninth Ward, where Cragier (Dem.) received 512 votes against 6 for Washburn (Rep.), and claims that even a superficial investigation gives evidence of wholesale fraud. Its reporters, it says, found about sixty "dead men's names" of persons in the official registry who were not dead, and naturalized or had not moved from the precise residence of the kind of work done in that precinct it says:

"The 'gang' cracked the skull and battered the body of J. Kurr of 424 Ashland Avenue, and he died before he could be buried. Tuesday we voted him for Dewitt C. Cragier. Last summer Mr. Slechter of 424 Ashland Avenue went to Wheeling W. Va., where he is now living, but last Tuesday the 'gang' voted him for Dewitt C. Cragier."

The French were voting, but not to vote for a Republican to live an attempt to vote for a Republican ticket in that precinct.

LEGISLATION IN ILLINOIS, MINNESOTA AND OTHER STATES.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 11.—In the House yesterday a bill was introduced to prevent discrimination to be made in future contracts in favor of or against the standard gold or silver coins of the United States and to make said coins joint legal tender for all indebtedness hereafter contracted in the State. It is the opinion of the committee that the bill is well introduced.

There was no session in the Senate this morning, and the one in the house was attended by only a few members.

The bill providing for an extension of time to the committee for the investigation of the Chicago Live Stock Exchange was concurred in, and they are empowered to take testimony from witnesses in St. Louis, Kansas City, and other places.

Yards, East St. Louis, and any other yards in the State. The bill making an appropriation for the establishment of a State Normal School, which passed the Senate yesterday, came over to the House and advanced to a second reading. Reports from three committees were made. One bill was introduced. Eighteen house bills and six Senate bills were advanced to a second reading, and the calendar cleared.

Representative Given introduced a resolution, which was adopted, endorsing the work of the Mississippi River Commission and asking Congress to appropriate money to enable them to continue their labor. Advanced Tuesday next.

MICHIGAN'S ANTI-SIGHTS LAW.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 11.—Yesterday the Hump bill was called up in the House and referred to the Committee on Education, before recalled and sent to the Judiciary Committee. The bill, 104, is the "anti-sight" bill. It is the foolish, notorious and boyish bill introduced to prohibit any woman from appearing on the stage in tights. The theater managers throughout the state are much exercised over the measure, and are doing all in their power to defeat it. Manager Scott yesterday sent an invitation to the House to attend the Metropolitan in the evening, after which there is a meeting of mostly young women dressed in tights. The farmer members went wild in their denunciation of such an audacity, but the Democrats and Republicans accepted the invitation and voted a motion to thank the managers. The measure, as passed by the Senate, is as follows:

Any female person who shall, upon the stage or in any public place, whatever, where other persons are present, expose her naked limb or limbs, dressed or undressed, in any manner, so as to be impossible to drive tights, with female neither limbs in them, from the stage altogether. The real outcome of this Minnesota bill is that the girls will be compelled to wear tights under the back-water of their own ridiculous flood of ultra-morality. They are preparing to take the leading parts in one of the biggest and riskiest pieces ever produced before the American public.

OPPOSING FORCES DESCRIBED.

I divide the opposing forces of this battle of the sexes as follows: I will find all those who are inclined to 'gut' the crusade, and certainly opposed to such sweeping legislation as the McHale bill. You will find all little towns and country hamlets backing up the tight abolition movement, and supporting societies, and are doing all in their power to defeat it. Manager Scott yesterday sent an invitation to the House to attend the Metropolitan in the evening, after which there is a meeting of mostly young women dressed in tights.

The Daily Dodger has dodged into the "nine" hole.

The Chicago woods appear to be full of Democrats, but some of them are mighty mean specimens of their kind.

THERE seems to be evidence sufficient to cause the removal of the Democratic Judge and Clerk who stole ballots in the Sixteenth Ward, from the politics of St. Louis to the State workshops in Jefferson City.

The advertisers of St. Louis have not succeeded in getting the figures of the circulation of the Republic, but they have got a pointer which ought to be worth thousands of dollars to them in placing their advertising.

Premier RUDINI is reported to be hot in the collar again over what he considers the impudence of Americans, but while he is said to be threatening all manner of dire results, there is nothing to indicate that he is thinking about recalling the criminals and paupers whom Italy is dumping upon American soil.

The difficult accusation is made against the Post-Dispatch that it "concocted" a scheme to compel the newspapers of St. Louis to do justice to their advertising by furnishing proof of their circulation. We must confess that we had some such scheme in mind, and the wickedness of such a design was aggravated by the conviction that if it succeeded it would show that the circulation of the Post-Dispatch in the city of St. Louis exceeded that of the Globe-Democrat and Republic put together.

The New York Tribune celebrated its golden jubilee yesterday with music and speech making at the Metropolitan Opera-house. Several distinguished gentlemen delivered speeches extolling the merits of HORACE GREENLEY's paper and congratulated it upon a successful career of fifty years' duration, but none of them pointed out the singular fact, which constitutes a reversal of the usual order of things, that it has less wisdom in its old age than it had in its youth.

The breakdown of the Republic on the question of circulation is so abject and complete that it would be wasting words to attempt any further exposure. Every newspaper in the country knows, and every advertiser knows, that circulation is the basis of advertising and that advertising is obtained wholly on the representations of circulation made by the newspaper.

In the case of the Republic, the refusal to allow any inquiry to be made into its circulation is a proof that the advertising it has obtained has been obtained by fraud and false pretenses, and every advertisement in the paper represents a swindle and a robbery. This is especially the case with the Sunday paper, which at no time in the past ten years has had the circulation which would entitle it to recognition as an advertising medium. The advertisers of St. Louis have rendered a public service in railing this fraud and leaving it without a rag to cover its exposure.

PARTY WRECKAGE IN CHICAGO.

The Chicago returns should be a memorable lesson to those who think that the organization of a political party can be used with advantage to itself in an effort to capture city offices for its bosses and their henchmen. Those returns show that party lines gave way wherever they came into collision with serious local issues; that the spirit of home rule was stronger than allegiance to either party, and that the voters of the strongest party emphatically resented and rebuked the attempt to control their votes in city election by party authority.

Major CREGIER, who was elected two years ago by a majority of 12,000, was nominated for re-election by the Democrats. That they could have given him a larger majority this time, if there had been no local issue to divide them, is shown by the fact that the united vote for the two Democratic candidates for City Treasurer exceeded by 18,000 the whole number of votes cast for both the Republican nominee and the Citizens' candidate.

But the Democrats divided on local issues. The authority of the Democratic State Committee, exerted to the utmost for the regularly nominated Cregier ticket, and the earnest appeals he and Gov. PEPPER of Wisconsin made in numerous speeches to prevail on the Democrats to stand by the regular ticket, rallied but little more than half the Democratic to its support. It received 46,000 votes, while the bolting Democratic ticket received about 43,000.

The lesson of it all is completed by the fact that, in spite of the inviting opportunity afforded by this Democratic division, the Republicans also divided on local issues and 22,000 of their votes were polled for a fourth candidate, nominated by the Independents or Republicans came out second in the race.

AT WORK TO-DAY.

Progress of the Official Count of Tuesday's Election Returns.

CANDIDATE COSSMAN KNOCKED OUT BY THE SEVENTH WARD FIGURES.

The Investigation of the Sixteenth Ward Frauds—Democrats Trying to Get the Ballots Thrown From the Polling-Place—Councilman-Elect James' Citizenship—State Combinations at City Hall.

The official canvass of the returns of Tuesday's election began in Recorder of Voters Carlisle's office at 9 o'clock this morning. Justices of the Peace Pollard representing the Democrats and Mielert the Republicans, end to hand to make the counts with Recorder Carlisle. Mr. McCoy, representing the Independent Municipal party, was present as a spectator having no official connection with the count. Several of the candidates who figured in the late election dropped in and out during the count, particularly those who ran for the House of Delegates and were defeated or elected by small figures. Frank Cossman, who was defeated in the seventh Ward by his attorney, John L. Martin, Mr. Martin having a rather strange incident of the election which he proposes to fully investigate. He said: "In the Thirty-second Precinct of the Seventh Ward they didn't know what to do with the ballot boxes of the people who voted in the election. They were sick in bed in the same house that the polling place was located. He was unable to get down stairs to vote, so two of the Democratic leaders took him up and carried him through the hall, upstairs, and into the man's room, where he fixed his ballot and gave it to the accommodating judges, who took it down stairs and cast it in his ballot box. I don't know the name of the man almost constantly, and witness saw him every day several times and only on one occasion was he able to give a little. Years ago, however, he used to go on sprees occasionally with the boys, go out of a night during election times and drink a good deal, but would turn up all right."

PAWN ON THE STAND.

Local Directors' Meeting—Miss Cousins and Mrs. Palmer.

CHICAGO, April 11.—At the first meeting of the Local Board of Directors of the World's Columbian Exposition last night, James W. Scott of the Herald was nominated for President, to succeed Lyman J. Gage. The nomination was unanimous. Mr. Scott, a committee appointed to report a list of officers to be voted for next Tuesday evening. Mr. Scott declined to accept the office, but his resignation was not accepted, and the nominating committee passed over the ticket to another. On this subject yesterday Mr. James said: "It's rather late in the day for the circulation of a story of this kind, and particularly as there is no foundation in fact for the charge that Mrs. Palmer is a thief. I hope that Chas. James, one of the Councilmen-elect, could not produce his naturalization papers or any other evidence of citizenship. Mr. James is a native of England, but came to this country in the early fifties."

Speicher's Savings Bank vs. Missouri Railway Co.; motion to affirm judgment sustained.

State ex rel. Allen vs. Orrin Bump et al.; motion for defendant.

Hugh M. Thompson vs. James Baker; motion to dismiss suit sustained.

COURT NOTES.

Louis Ober, the brewer, has sued Henry L. Grisselbach and Louis Graf for a bill of removal to $400.

An inventory of Christopher Reiter's estate was filed in the Probate Court this morning. The estate consists of household furniture and a house and lot on Ober Avenue.

Letters of administration were granted to day to Ignatius Heck on the estate of Maria A. Gelet, valued at $1,100.

REAL ESTATE INTERESTS.
